Pickwick Theatre, 5 S. Prospect Ave., Park Ridge

Presented with Go Green Park Ridge

Tickets: $8

YOUTH UNSTOPPABLE

It's time to go ALL IN for the planet.

After this film, stay for a Q&A with director Slater Jewelle-Kemker. Leave with easy ways to act on what you learned or plug into hands-on projects that can make a big difference. Later, return at 5 pm for a free, one-hour eco-clinic at Uncle Dan's for youth ages 12-18.

Ensure your seat! Reserve tickets at box office or onearthfilmfest.org

Feature Story

The Maine South business club, DECA, competed at the regional competition in Rosemont, Illinois in January. In total, over 1,100 students from north suburban Illinois competed at the event. Maine South DECA had 32 students competing in various business competitions. Some of the contests they competed in include Accounting Applications, Principles of Finance, Business Law and Ethics, and numerous others. Eight students earned awards for their performance. In March, twelve Maine South DECA students will compete at the state level.
