Color Run

Join the Maine South chapter of the National Honor Society for our fifth 'color run' to raise money for the schoolwide fundraiser. The purpose of our run.walk is to bring the school and the Maine South community together for some fun, to build bridges to the community, and to support the recipient charity - which for 2019 is the Dup15q Alliance. All ages are welcome! Registration can be done online or on-site, but pre-registrants who are signed up by April 11 are guaranteed a t-shirt. extras for walk-ons are first come first serve on the day of the event.

We are also looking for local businesses to join our list of sponsors! Please contact us if you are interested in being an even sponsor!
