

Maine South High School

WALL OF HONOR NOMINATION FORM

Maine South High School and our Wall of Honor Selection Committee seek to recognize graduates for their outstanding contributions to society through significant career accomplishments and/or community service. Our Wall of Honor serves the dual purpose of recognizing such accomplishments and presenting our Distinguished Alumni as role models for current students at Maine South High School.

Nominees must meet the following criteria:

- Nominee must have graduated from Maine South High School.
- Nominee must be at least 35 years old. Nominee may be recognized posthumously.
- Nominee's achievements have gone beyond a personal benefit and his/her contributions are of a significant nature for the community and society.
- Nominee's contributions are recognized on a community, state-wide or national basis.
