Active Club	Cultural Club	Multilingual Hawks Club	Cody Mueller Monica Tippereiter	The purpose of this club is to provide extracurricular space, community, and belonging to our culturally and linguistically diverse student population. Furthermore, we are striving to bring in any and all Hawks that are interested in getting to know them. Members of the club will support future newcomers, gain leadership experience, and provide a space that will help CLD flourish during their time at Maine South. We wish to bridge the gap between the ML community and the larger Hawk environment.
Active Club	Honor Society	National Art Honor Society	Megan Kelly	The National Art Honor Society recognizes students who show outstanding ability and interest in art. Members are leaders who strive to promote the arts in their school and community through creativity, service and collaboration.

Active Club	Honor Society	National Honor Society	Johanna Sarlas	The National Honor Society is a national honors organization for secondary school students. The Maine South chapter of the National Honor Society is chartered by the national organization and is governed by the national's rules and its own chapter bylaws. Students with junior or senior standing who hold a cumulative unweighted GPA of 3.5 or higher at the end of the second semester of sophomore year will be invited to submit additional information for the Faculty to consider. Invitation for membership is based on four criteria: Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service. Membership invitations are sent after the application deadlines by a Faculty Advisory Council based on examination of transcripts, student-submitted materials, and other relevant school records. Materials are due to the NHS adviser in late August. Invited NHS members are inducted in October of each year, and are expected to maintain high levels of academic achievement, school and community leadership and volunteer service, including a minimum of ten hours of service every six months and active participation in NHS activities. The Maine South National Honor Society seeks to coordinate at least one service project each semester, and members are expected to support the school in various ways throughout their time at Maine South.
